HE HAD HIS NERVE

A Detroiter Paralyzes Two Footpads By It

WHO BANG HIM IN THE EYE

And Leave Him Yelling "Police" at the Top of His Voice-News of the State in Brevities.

Dernorr, Jan. 26 .- Isadore Yaness, a young Hebrew living at No. 170 Actietam street, came into police headquar-ters yesterday with an eye badly bruised and of many colors. He said that Sunday evening about 7:30 o'clock he was crossing the Lake Shore tracks on Macomb atrees, when two young men approached him, asking:

"Say, mister, give me a dollar, will

What do you want with a dollar" asked Yaness.

"I want to get a bath, a supper and "Why, you can get that for half a dollar," answered Yances. One of the fellows then made a grab at Yaness' watch chain and tried to pull his watch out of his pocket. The chain troke and Yaness grabbed his assailant by the cost and began to tak him away. The other fellow grabbed Yaness under the arms, which broke the latter's bold on rother No. I. Yenese was then given a bang in the eye which made him see stars, and started him yelling "Police!" "Murder!" at such a rate that his assailants ran away.

SHE WANTS HER BOYS.

A Dowagiac Woman in Deep Distress for Them.

Dowassac, Jan. 28 .- A strange and Dowagiac, Jan. 25.—A strange and pathetic case of parting mother and children took place here last summer, and the lapse of time only adds to the strangeness and sadness. The last of June Mrs. Chiloe Holmes, finding married life no longer endurable, left her husband and the home in which the last of her money was invested, and took means which she hoped would secure her the passession of her boys. In this she failed, however, and the last of July her husband, Andrew B. Holmes, left town with their three boys, whose ages are 11, 9 and 6 years. He tramped with them the most of the distance between Dowagiac and Fenville, Allegan county, where he was Fenville, Allegan county, where he was last seen sometime the last part of August. At Fenville the four seem to have disappeared as completely as though they had been suddenly wiped off the face of the earth. In spite of the diligent efforts of the almost distracted mother, no clue to their further progress or trace of their present where-abouts have been discovered.

abouts have been discovered.

Mrs. Holmes is now completely discouraged and grief-stricken over the loss of her little ones. She is of a good family, being a daughter of one of the pioneers in this county. Her maiden name was Rider. Mr. Holmes never made a success of everything in business and she was accustomed long before their separation, to contribute to the support of the household. A brother of Mrs. Holmes died insane in brother of Mrs. Holmes died insane in the county nouse, and a belief enter-tained by many that her husband is not just right mentally adds to Mrs. Holmes' great fear that some evil has befallen her three little boys. Any in-formation that might tend to restore her peace of mind can be addressed to her at this place. It is insisted that the oldest boy, if alive, would write to his mother, had his mind not been poisoned against her by the father's in-

Traveling on His Cheek.

Jackson, Jan. 26. Hotels throughout this state are being victimized by a clever hotel best who registers either as "Edwin von Esmarch, Berlin, Ger-many" or "C. Albertus." A little over many or "C. Albertis." A little over a week ago he came here and registered as "Von Esmarch." He claimed to be a surgeon, and after living like a lord for seven days, suddenly disappeared. It is said that one Detroit hotel was victimized $100 worth, and many other hotels about the state for smaller amounts. As he came here from the east it is thought perhaps he will next turn up in Chicago.

Returned to His Home.

ADRIAN, Mich., Jan. 26. - Johnny Mc-Eldowney, 13 years old, whose myste-rious dropping out of sight last May caused considerable excitement hereshouts, returned to the home of his well-nigh distracted parents this morn-ing. He has reamed about the coun-try by the tramping process, baving spent a good share of his time near Newburg, Mich., working for a mix-man. Not a trace could be discovered of the runaway during the whole time. Rivers were dragged and rewards offered without avail.

John McHugh's Two Wills.

Kahamazoo, Mich., Jan. 20.—January 13 John Mcliugh, aged 50, made a will, leaving his exate, valued at $2,000, to be divided equally among his six children. The next day he made another will, leaving all to his on Hugh, rendering the other will void. The old man having since died, the other children have had an injunction served on Hugh restraining him from disposing of or incumbering the property deeded to him. They claim that he unduly influenced his father.

Lost Two Leading Citizens. ALMONY, Jan. 26. John Hamilton, a man by years old and well-to-do, and Colonel A. V. Aussenson, for fifteen years postmanter bery, both died yeaterday. They were among the most prominent men of this vicinity.

Cocking Main at Craff Lake. Kanamamo Jan 18, -- some unguily citizens of Kalamamo and Battle creek presided over a cocking main held near Guil Lake Monday night. To vary the menotony of the affair the spectators eccasionally took a hand between matches and gleefully knocked each other down. Battle Cree was unfortunate until the last match, when an old time bird filled the pit with the gore of Celeryville roosters. About $600 changed hands.

Jacusos, Mich., Jan. 26.—A voing Hollander while driving a delivery wagon across the Lake Shore tracks to-day, when an incoming train killed the horse and demollahed the wagon. The young man escaped uninjured. Ruildings osstruct the view of the track and prevented the incoming train's being seen.

Failure at Ishpeming.

Ishpeming, Mich., Jan. 26.—Dennis McCarty, dealer in dry goods and notons, and a member of the city council, made an assignment late last night to Thomas Dawson. The habilities are estimated at $3000; assets can not be estimated, but will be very small. The creditors are principally Chicago and Milwaukee firms.

St. Louis Goes Dry.

Sr. Louis, Jan. 25.—Yesterday a lo-cal option election was held here. Out of a total of 521 votes, a majority of 100 voted against soloons, and St. Louis people will now have to go to drug stores.

Lecal Option Prevails. ITHACA, Jan. 28.—Local option has won in this (Gratiot) county by about 1,200 majority.
